SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO RISING VIEW

(OMAHA, NE) – Santa and Mrs. Santa Claus will visit the Rising View community Friday, December 19 starting at 6:00 pm. The couple will leave their reindeer at the North Pole and instead visit military members and their families aboard the Offutt Air Force Base fire truck

According to Dora Stuch, Director, Property Management, Rising View, “We have an amazing community at Rising View and we enjoy organizing events that bring everyone closer, especially during the holiday season.”

The Rising View property management team will join Santa and Mrs. Claus aboard the fire truck and tour the community. According to Stuch, “We like to blow the horn every few blocks to get everyone’s attention and spend time meeting with the families in the community. Plus, everyone enjoys seeing Santa and Mrs. Claus!”

Santa and Mrs. Claus will hand out candy canes and pose for pictures.

About Rising View and America First Communities

America First Communities is the owner, developer and manager of Rising View, a Bellevue/Offutt Community, at Offutt Air Force Base. It commenced operations at Offutt in September 2005 as part of the U.S. Government’s effort to privatize military housing in order to provide high quality housing, improve services and reduce costs. The Company assumed management of 2,600 housing units and will demolish 1,874 homes, renovate 484 existing homes and build 914 new homes. At the end of the eight year project in 2013, a total of 1,640 homes will be available for military families.
